RICH IP FEATURES

CHOICE OF BROADBAND

At Speakeasy, our whole business is helping small businesses. With Speakeasy Hosted Voice (VoIP), you'll enjoy low start-up costs, affordable long-distance, and advanced productivity-boosting features—plus customer support you only dreamed was possible until now.

Speakeasy Hosted Voice delivers all the advantages of a big business phone system with minimal equipment, lower start-up costs, and simplified web-based maintenance. There's no PBX or IP-PBX equipment to buy or lease and no need for an expensive maintenance contract. Moves, adds and changes can be made virtually after the initial installation.

Plus, Speakeasy Hosted Voice will take your business communications to a new level with easy-to-use VoIP features. Voicemail as Email, Remote Office, Simultaneous Ring and other advanced features are ideal for coordinating a virtual or remote workforce, but they can help any business be more productive, more collaborative, and more responsive.
